

The King George VI Collectors' Society
(Founded in 1960 by Frank R Saunders)
Affiliated to the Association of British Philatelic Societies

THE SOCIETY'S AIMS

1. To bring together in one worldwide body, collectors who in one way or another, collect the Commonwealth stamps issued during the period of King George VI.
2. To foster and encourage the study of these stamps and their usage.
3. To provide a forum for the discussion and investigations of problems arising from the production and usage of these stamps.
4. To record everything possible about the stamps of the reign, thus making available for future generations of collectors, the knowledge acquired by their predecessors.
5. To urge ADVANCED Collectors to share their knowledge, MEDIUM COLLECTORS to increase their knowledge and BEGINNERS to acquire knowledge.
6. To encourage students of the stamps of the reign to collaborate with others, by correspondence or personal contact and, thus, to advance their studies by sharing knowledge and material needed for study work.

IN PURSUIT OF THESE AIMS, THE SOCIETY

PUBLISHES GEOSIX quarterly (March, June, September and December) and Study Papers.
PROVIDES Advertisement of "Wants" and "Offers" in GEOSIX and an archival service.
